

Sheerwater Regeneration
Community Consultation Forum 2
3rd October 2013, 7pm - 9pm

Event Summary

Introduction

Members were invited to the second Community Consultation Forum (CCF) event which was held on the 3rd October 2013 at the Parkview Community Centre. Attendance remained good and was also well attended.

Statistics

61 members of the Community Consultation Forum attended the second Community Consultation Forum, and were asked to sit at one of 11 tables. There was a wide mix of members on each table, and the chart below gives an indication of the representation within each group.

	Freeholders	Leaseholders	Council Tenants	Shared Ownership	Other Tenants	Business Owner	Other Stakeholders
Table 1
Table 2
Table 3
Table 4
Table 5
Table 6
Table 7
Table 8
Table 9
Table 10
Table 11

Table by table summary of answers

Table 1 – 8 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater

...it still feels green and leafy
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
Desirable
Nothing listed
Nice To Have
...the new homes are less costly to run
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
Not Important
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier

Table 2 – 6 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...the parking provision has been improved
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
Desirable
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...the new homes are less costly to run
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities

...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...more family housing has been provided
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
Nice to Have
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 3 – 6 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
.... Current owners are well compensated [Statement Added]
... gardens are kept in good condition and for all types of house [Statement Added]
... street lighting [Statement Added]
...the area feels more safe
...the new homes are less costly to run
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of

...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...more family housing has been provided
... as well as single dwellings [Statement Added]
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
Essential / Desirable
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
Desirable
...the canal is more easily accessible
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
Desirable / Nice to have
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...the parking provision has been improved
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
Nice to have
...cycling to work is easier
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
Nice to have / Not important
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater to pedestrians and cyclists
Not important

None listed

Table 4 – 5 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
Desirable
...the new homes are less costly to run
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...it still feels green and leafy
...cycling to work is easier
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...the parking provision has been improved
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
Nice to have
...the canal is more easily accessible
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...more family housing has been provided
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place

...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
Not important
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists

Table 5 – 4 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...Facilities for Children (added)
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...the parking provision has been improved
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
Essential / Desirable
...the new homes are less costly to run
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
Desirable
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
...it still feels green and leafy
...the canal is more easily accessible
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater

...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...more family housing has been provided
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
Desirable / Nice to have
...cycling to work is easier
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
Nice to have
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 6 – 7 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...it still feels green and leafy
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...the parking provision has been improved
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...more family housing has been provided
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
... Woody nice areas are left alone (Woodlands Park) [Statement Added]
Desirable
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community

...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
Nice to have
...the canal is more easily accessible
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 7 – 6 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
...the area feels more safe
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater

...the parking provision has been improved
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
Desirable
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...it still feels green and leafy
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...more family housing has been provided
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
Nice to have
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...the new homes are less costly to run
Not important
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable

Table 8 – 7 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay

...the new homes are less costly to run
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...the parking provision has been improved
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...more family housing has been provided
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
Desirable
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
Nice to have
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 9 – 8 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...the area feels more safe
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...the new homes are less costly to run
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...Back Gardens (Private) [Statement Added]
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...more family housing has been provided
Desirable
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
Desirable / Nice to have
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
Nice to have
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier

...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...the parking provision has been improved
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
Nice to have / Not important
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 10 – 4 Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...the new homes are less costly to run
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area
...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...more family housing has been provided
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities
Desirable
...the area feels more safe
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...the canal is more easily accessible
...cycling to work is easier
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...the parking provision has been improved

...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
Nice to have
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
Not important
Nothing listed

Table 11 – Members

The regeneration of Sheerwater will have succeeded if, by the end...

Essential
...the residents that want to stay, can stay
...the local retail provision works well with the new ASDA
...it is easier to get in and out of Sheerwater
...it still feels green and leafy
...there is better access to public transport from within Sheerwater
...residents feel that their views have been taken account of
...the new homes are environmentally friendly
...the parking provision has been improved
...more family housing has been provided
...improved health and wellbeing facilities are available for all ages
...there is specialist accommodation for elderly and vulnerable residents
...housing has been designed to meet to the physical needs of different members of the community
...If we don't want to move, we will not be forced to if not necessary (added)
Desirable
...the new homes are less costly to run
...new leisure facilities are provided for the benefit of the local community
...there are car free zones within Sheerwater
...the schools have access to high quality sports pitches and facilities
...there is variety of public open space catering for young and older residents
...there has been improved access to jobs and training in the area

...new homes for sale and rent are indistinguishable
...new vehicle routes are created to link the area to its surroundings
...there are more opportunities for formal and informal social interaction
... measures to control traffic speed have been put in place
Nice to have
...cycling to work is easier
...open spaces are well overlooked and safe
...there is a sense of pride in living in Sheerwater
...streets are designed to give priority to pedestrians and cyclists
...the tenure mix meets the housing need of the local community
Not important
...the area feels more safe
...the canal is more easily accessible
...the schools and community facilities feel like they are at the heart of the community
...there is a “town square” or focal point for the community
...Sheerwater becomes a walking neighbourhood that is safe and easy to find your way around
...there has been a reduction in antisocial behaviour
...the area caters for a diverse range of cultures and faiths
...older residents feel more integrated into the community and feel able to make full use of the local communities